

I listen to my XM radio station everyday and truly believe it would be in the best interest of competition and the consumer to allow XM radio to broadcast weather and traffic information. These are two valuable services that can increase the consumer's awareness and safety of there surroundings and should be allowed on as many different media's as possible. Please support this effort.